

FIREPLACE

Words & Music by Tom Demaree

Spending every morning on my face
Searching for Your heart
To Guide me through Your day

Walking every day in Your Word
Hidden in my heart
Lighting my way
You are the Fire
You are the Flame

I'm Your fireplace; I burn with Your light
The life that I live is by Your mercy to me
I've no power of my own; only through You
Only by Your fire will I change the world
I'm Your fireplace

Overcoming evil in Your name
Covered by Your blood
Declaring Your Word

Waiting for the day of Your return
Praying it is soon
Standing 'till You come
You are the Fire
You are the Flame

Weeping for the broken and the lost
The passion of Your heart
The reason You came

Seeing just a glimpse of who You are
My heart is overwhelmed
And I'm forever changed
You are the Fire
You are the Flame
